DETAILED ACTION
Election/Restrictions

In response to the Applicant's election of Group II, claims 2-10 in the Restriction Requirement in a correspondence dated February 28, 2008, Examiner has determined that the elected method claims encompass patentably distinct inventions. The methods are drawn to treating patentably distinct skin conditions which include different patient populations. As a result, the Restriction Requirement of January 29, 2008 is vacated and replaced with the following Restriction Requirement.

As written claims 2-10 are non-statutory subject matter, see 35 U.S.C. 101.

35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

For the purpose of restriction, the Examiner is interpreting the "use claims" of claims 2-10 as method claims.

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claims 1 and 11-13, drawn to a composition for protecting skin comprising sphingomyelin.

Group II, claims 2-3, drawn to a method of using a composition comprising sphingomyelin for inhibiting skin aging and skin photoaging respectively.

Group III, claims 4-6, drawn to a method of using a composition comprising sphingomyelin for curing a wound and improving or repairing a skin barrier respectively.

Art Unit: 1625

Group IV, claim 7, drawn to a method of using a composition comprising sphingomyelin for treating atopic skin.

Group V, claim 8, drawn to a method of using a composition comprising sphingomyelin for improving itchy skin.

Group VI, claim 9, drawn to a method of using a composition comprising sphingomyelin for improving skin softness.

Group VII, claim 10, drawn to a method of using a composition comprising sphingomyelin for preventing rough and scaly skin formation.

The inventions listed as Groups I-VII do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

The common technical feature linking the claims is sphingomyelin. This element cannot be a special technical feature under PCT Rule 13.2, because the element is shown in the prior art.

In the present case, Montastier (US 589034) teaches the use of sphingolipids (specifically sphingomyelin) in the preparation of a cosmetic or dermatopharmaceutical composition protecting the skin and hair against the harmful effects of atmospheric pollution. As a result, no special technical features exist among the different groups because the inventions in Groups I-VII fail to make a contribution over the prior art. In conclusion, Groups I-VII are not so linked by the same or a corresponding special technical feature as to form a single general inventive concept, and therefore, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

The examiner has required restriction between product and process claims. Where applicant elects claims directed to the product, and the product claims are subsequently found allowable, withdrawn process claims that depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of the allowable product claim will be considered for rejoinder. All claims directed to a nonelected process invention must require all the limitations of an allowable product claim for that process invention to be rejoined.

In the event of rejoinder, the requirement for restriction between the product claims and the rejoined process claims will be withdrawn, and the rejoined process claims will be fully examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. Thus, to be allowable, the rejoined claims must meet all criteria for patentability including the requirements of 35 U.S.C. 101, 102, 103 and 112. Until all claims to the elected product are found allowable, an otherwise proper restriction requirement between product claims and process claims may be maintained. Withdrawn process claims that are not commensurate in scope with an allowable product claim will not be rejoined. See MPEP § 821.04(b). Additionally, in order to retain the right to rejoinder in accordance with the above policy, applicant is advised that the process claims should be amended during prosecution to require the limitations of the product claims. Failure to do so may result in a loss of the right to rejoinder. Further, note that the prohibition against double patenting rejections of 35 U.S.C. 121 does not apply where the restriction requirement is withdrawn by the examiner before the patent issues. See MPEP § 804.01.

Due to the complicated nature of the restriction, the restriction requirement is being made via written correspondence in lieu of a telephone interview.

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Kortney Klinkel, Ph.D. whose telephone number is (571)270-5239. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday-Friday 8am to 5pm.
